Foreword

In response to letter no. 1/7/DIP/2015/MSME-DI dated 20/05/2016 of O/o DC (MSME), M/o MSME, Govt. of India. The District Industrial Profile of Guna for the year 2015-16 has been updated upto 31/03/2016 by this office. This profile contained Geography, Topography, Mineral availability, forest resources, District general information, Industrial scenario & potentiality of MSME of the district.

Guna the gateway of Malwa & Chambal is located on the northern - eastern part of Malwa Plateau between river Parbati and Betwa. Mathematically the District is situated between the latitudes 23°53' N and 25°6'55" N and longitude 76°48' 30"E and 78°, 16'70"E. The western boundary of the District is well defined by the river. In the beginning of 18th century Chanderi was the part of Malwa and remaining portion of Guna formed the part of Raghogarh State. Later on Raghogarh was split into three states of which Garah and Dharnawada State among the three claimants of Raghogarh family. After the great revolt of 1857, Guna district thus passed under the control of Gwalior State with Raghogarh as its mandatory chief. An assistant to the resident of Gwalior was posted at Guna which remained an English cantonment after the year 1860. Although Guna was de jure a part of Gwalior State, but because of its British cantonment, it was considered expedient to locate the district headquarter there.

While preparing the profile, the data was collected from various departments of Madhya Pradesh Government and from internet. I take this opportunity to appreciate the efforts of Shri V.M.Kshire, Asstt. Director (PI), Shri B.Gahan, Asstt. Director (EI) in bringing out this industrial profile of Guna for the year 2015-16.

Brief Industrial Profile of District GUNA (MP)

1. General Characteristics of the District

1.1 Location & Geographical Area:

Guna the gateway of Malwa & Chambal is located on the northern -eastern part of Malwa Plateau between river Parbati and Betwa. Mathematically the District is situated between the latitudes 23°53' N and 25°6'55' N and longitude 76°48' 30"E and 78° 16'70"E. The western boundary of the District is well defined by the river. In the beginning of 18th century Chanderi was the part of Malwa and remaining portion of Guna formed the part of Raghogarh State. Later on Raghogarh was split into three states of which Garah and Dharnawada State among the three claimants of Raghogarh family. After the great revolt of 1857, Guna district thus passed under the control of Gwalior State with Raghogarh as its mandatory chief. An assistant to the resident of Gwalior was posted at Guna which remained an English cantonment after the year 1860. Although Guna was de jure a part of Gwalior State, but because of its British cantonment, it was considered expedient to locate the district headquarter there.

Bajrangarh, about 6 miles from Guna enjoyed that privilege. In 1897 the midland railway constructed the rail route passing through Guna. After independence on 28th May 1948, Guna became the part of Madhya Bharat as one of its 16 Districts subsequently as a result of State re-formation of new Madhya Pradesh in 1956 Guna district became a part of it.

3.4 Large Scale Industries / Public Sector undertakings

List of the units in Guna & nearby Area

1. National Fertilizers Ltd., Vijaypur, Guna
2. GAIL India Ltd., Vijaypur, Guna

3.5 Major Exportable Item: Urea

3.6 Growth Trend:

National Fertilizer Ltd and GAIL Ltd., are Public Sector Undertakings and are producing Fertilizers for better crop production and supply of Gas which is a replacement of fossil fuels, thus the growth for these PSUs is very high (20% - 25%) considering the future requirement of chemical manure in the country and alternative fuel.

3.7 Vendorisation / Ancillarisation of the Industry:

These two Public Sector Undertakings situated at Vijaypur, in Guna Distt. are well connected with National Highway no.03 i.e. Agra-Mumbai Road and Railways i.e. Ruthiyai Junction which is hardly 6-7 kilometers towards Guna. Therefore, the Ancillarisation/ Vendorisation from the District of Guna and its nearby Tehsils are having tremendous scope for supply of materials to these units as well as for other outsourcing work. However, vendors from manufacturing side may not be substantial but service provider vendors can be encouraged.

3.8. Medium Scale Enterprises

3.8.1 List of units in Guna & Near By Area
