Foreword

In response to letter no. 1/7/DIP/2015/MSME-DI dated 20/05/2016 of O/o DC (MSME), M/o MSME, Govt. of India. The District Industrial Profile of Indore for the year 2015-16 has been updated upto 31/03/2016 by this office. This profile contained Geography, Topography, Mineral availability, forest resources, District general information, Industrial scenario & potentiality of MSME of the district.

Indore district consists of 4 Tehsils, Depalpur, Sanwer, Indore and Mhow. Number of Blocks in the district is 5 (consisting of 36 Police Stations). There are total 335 Panchayats and 649 villages in these 4 blocks. Rojadi is one of them which are the first village in which every house has power cable direct to the transformer. At present, after the delimitation of parliamentary and legislative assembly constituencies in 2008, there are nine Vidhan Sabha constituencies in this district: Depalpur, Indore-1, Indore-2, Indore-3, Indore-4, Indore-5, Indore is often referred as the commercial capital of Madhya Pradesh with a bulk of its trade coming from Small, Mid and Large scale manufacturing & service industries. These industries range from Automobile to Pharmaceutical and from Software to Retail and from Textile trading to Real estate. Major industrial areas surrounding the city include the Pithampur Special Economic Zone and the Sanwer Industrial belt.

While preparing the profile, the data was collected from various departments of Madhya Pradesh Government and from internet. I take this opportunity to appreciate the efforts of Shri V.M.Kshire, Asstt. Director (PI), Shri B.Gahan, Asstt. Director (EI) in bringing out this industrial profile of Indore for the year 2015-16.

Brief Industrial Profile of Indore District

1. General Characteristics of the District

Indore is known as a commercial capital of Madhya Pradesh. Its name Indore is due to its deity Indreshwar. Indore is one of the richest cities in central India and also known as "Mini Mumbai" among native people of Indore, due to its lifestyle similarities with Mumbai. It also reflects Mumbai's potpourri of cultures, with significant Marwari, Marathi, North Indians and Sindhi populations. Indore is administered by the Indore Municipal Corporation. Some of the regions surrounding the city are administered by the Indore Development Authority (IDA). The IMC was established in 1956 under the Madhya Pradesh Nagar Palika Nigam Adhiniyam. For administrative purposes, the city is divided into 69 wards. These wards have been further divided into 11 zones. Indore is a Lok Sabha constituency and has 9 assembly seats. Indore is the administrative centre and chief city of the district. Mhow is an important cantonment town in Indore District, it has three of the Indian Army's premier training institutes. The Border Security Force (BSF) has its Central School of Weapons and Tactics (CSWT) at Indore. Indore is the only city of India with both an Indian Institute of Management (IIM) and an Indian Institute of Technology (IIT).

The main institution involved in planning and development in Indore is IDA. The principal responsibility of IDA is to ensure a holistic development of the Indore agglomeration covering an area of 19.718 km² as per Master plans.

1.1 Location & Geographical Area.

Indore is located in the western region of Madhya Pradesh, on the southern edge of the Malwa plateau. It lies on the bank of Saraswati and Khan Rivulets, which are tributaries of the Shipra River and has an average elevation of 553.00 meter above mean sea level. It is located on an elevated plain, with the Vindhyas range to the south. Apart from Yashwant Lake, there are many lakes that supply water to the city including Sirpur Tank, Bilawali Talab, Sukhniwas Lake and Pipliyapala Talab. Soil cover in the city region is predominantly black. The underlying rock of the region is composed of black basalt, and their acidic and basic variants dating back to the late Cretaceous and early Eocene eras. The area is classified as Seismic Zone III region.

1.2 Topography:

Indore district consists of 4 Tehsils, Depalpur, Sanwer, Indore and Mhow. Number of Blocks in the district is 5 (consisting of 36 Police Stations).
