Foreword

In response to letter no. 1/7/DIP/2015/MSME-DI dated 20/05/2016 of O/o DC (MSME), M/o MSME, Govt. of India. The District Industrial Profile of -Sagar for the year 2015-16 has been updated upto 31/03/2016 by this office. This profile contained Geography, Topography, Mineral availability, forest resources, District general information, Industrial scenario & potentiality of MSME of the district.

The district of Sagar lies in the north central region of Madhya Pradesh. It was spelled as Saugar during the British period. It is situated between 23°10' and 24°27' north latitude and between 78° 4' and 79 ° 21' east longitude; the district has a truly central location in the country. The tropic of cancer passes through the southern part of the district. The origin of the name comes from the Hindi word Sagar meaning lake or sea, apparently because of the large and once beautiful lake around which the town of Sagar has been built. Sagar was founded by Udan Singh in 1660 and was constituted a municipality in 1867. A major road and agricultural trade centre, it has industries such as oil and flour milling, saw-milling , ghee processing , handloom cotton weaving, bidi manufacture and railway and engineering works. It is known in all over India due to its University named as Dr. Harisingh Gaur University and Army Cantonment and recently it has come into lime light due to Bhagyodyay Tirth a charitable hospital named after a Jain Sant Shri Vidya Sagarji Maharaj. It is known that the Police Training College which is only two in Madhya Pradesh other one is in Indore. Head quarter of Forensic Science Lab is also in Sagar.

While preparing the profile, the data was collected from various departments of Madhya Pradesh Government and from internet. I take this opportunity to appreciate the efforts of Shri V.M.Kshire, Asstt. Director (PI), Shri Madhukar Sharma, Asstt. Director (EI) in bringing out this industrial profile of Sagar for the year 2015-16.

Brief Industrial Profile of Sagar District

1. General Characteristics of the District:

The district of Sagar lies in the north central region of Madhya Pradesh. It was spelled as Saugar during the British period. It is situated between 23°10' and 24°27' north latitude and between 78° 4' and 79 ° 21' east longitude; the district has a truly central location in the country. The tropic of cancer passes through the southern part of the district. The origin of the name comes from the Hindi word Sagar meaning lake or sea, apparently because of the large and once beautiful lake around which the town of Sagar has been built. Sagar was founded by Udan Singh in 1660 and was constituted a municipality in 1867. A major road and agricultural trade centre, it has industries such as oil and flour milling, saw-milling , ghee processing , handloom cotton weaving, bidi manufacture and railway and engineering works. It is known in all over India due to its University named as Dr. Harisingh Gaur University and Army Cantonment and recently it has come into lime light due to Bhagyodyay Tirth a charitable hospital named after a Jain Sant Shri Vidya Sagarji Maharaj. It is known that the Police Training College which is only two in Madhya Pradesh other one is in Indore. Head quarter of Forensic Science Lab is also in Sagar.

1.1 Location & Geographical Area:

The district is situated on the north by Jhansi district of Uttar Pradesh, on the south by the district of Narsinghpur and Raisen, on the west by the district of Vidisha , and on the east by the district of Damoh, which was previously formed the part of Sagar District. On the north-east and north-west, the district adjoins Chhattarpur and Guna districts, respectively. The district is accessible by rail as the town of Sagar lies on the Bina Katni branch line of Central railway. Sagar is 76 Km from Bina which is on the Bombay Delhi main line. The district is traversed by first class roads which connect it with important towns like Damoh and Jabalpur on the east and south east, respectively, Lalitpur and Jhansi on the north, Chhattarpur on the north east and Bhopal on the south-west. Bhopal the capital of Madhya Pradesh is about 208 Km from Sagar by road. According to the Surveyor-General of India, the district has a total area of 6375 sq Kms and is shaped roughly like a triangle. The geographical area of Sagar district is 1022.80 hectare.

1.2 Topography:

Sagar lies in an extensive plain broken by low, forested hills and watered by Sonar river. Wheat, chickpeas, soghum, and oilseeds are chief crops of the region, there is extensive cattle raising. Sandstone, Limestone, iron ore and asbestos deposits are worked. The archaeological site nearby Eran has revealed several Gupta inscriptions. District Sagar is predominantly a Scheduled Caste/Backward class district. These together form about 75% of the district. The district has sizable population of tribals who are named as Rajgonds after their kingdom.
