1. General Characteristics of the District

DISTRICT	BAGESHWAR
Division	Kumaun
State	Uttarakhand
Country	India
District Head Quarters	Bageshwar

The District of Bageshwar came into existence on 15th September, 1997. It borders Chamoli in the North, Pithoragarh in the East, and Almora in the South-West. Bageshwar the land of Lord Shankar is of great religious, historic and political significance. The Nilaparvat, situated between the rivers Saryu and Gomati is said to be inhabited by all the 33 crore Gods of the Hindu pantheon. The share of culturable-based land is 6.8% in Uttarakhand that provides a huge potential for plantation crops like Jatropha and other species of Tree Borne Oilseeds (TBOS) and also for horticulture crops in the State.

1.1 Location & Geographical Area of District –Bageshwar

The district of Bageshwar is located in the northern parts of province of Uttaranchal in India. In east lies the district of Pithoragarh bordering Tibet and it's west lies the district of Chamoli and it's North lie the the Great Himalayas and in the South there is the district Bageshwar. Situated at the confluence of rivers Saryu, Gomti and latent Bhagirathi, lies the holy township of Bageshwar; also revered as the pious land associated with Lord Sadashiva, the redeemer of all sins. As the puranas state, this undoubtedly is a place capable of liberating one from the eternal bondage of births & deaths. With the east and west flanked by the Bhileswar and Nileshtar mountains and surrounded by Suraj Kund in the north and Agni Kund in the south, this land of Lord Shankar is of great religious, historic and political significance.

1. Lack of infrastructure needs to develop infrastructure.
2. Lack of trained manpower Skill Development Institutes needs to be established.
3. Demand for easy financial assistant.

Present Economic Activities of the District

Soap Stone Powder, Mini Flour Mill, Tin Boxes, Electricals / Electronics Goods
Repair, Cement Jalli, Cotton Spinning, Poultry Farm. Walloon products.

Constraints

- o Week Communications Network
- o Infrastructure
- o Connectivity
- o Lack of Entrepreneurship
- o Shortage of skilled manpower
- o Transportation
- o Marketing
- o Technology
- o Fragmentation if Land holding
- o Absence of integrated marketing infrastructure (packaging, weight, collection centers, etc)

- o Non-availability of training facilities in inertial location in the States.
- o Shortage of Bank Credit.

Suggestions:

The district has vast resources of various types of minerals. A detailed study needs to be undertaken to access the quantum and then scientific mining should be planned. Value addition of minerals should be done within the state itself.
