Brief Industrial Profile of Jalgaon District

1. General Characteristics of the District -

During ages of Mahabharata (Bhishmaparvat) different states such as Gomati, Mandaka, Khanda, Vidharbha, and Rupvahika, has been described. Out of that Khanda means Khandesh has been defined by the western historians. The sultan has given the Throne name to the 2nd Farukhi Raja as Khan due which the name Khandesh was established. In Short the present Dhule and Jalgaon District both were recognized during the middle as khandesh and as one district as Dhule and Headquarters as Dhule. For administrative reasons during the year 1906 Khandesh was divided as East Khandesh and West Khandesh and was divided into 2 districts. With Jalgaon as its Headquarters it consists of 10 taluka and 3 Petyan and was recognized as Talukas. In the year 1950 in Chalisgaon Taluka was divided into 13 cities of Aurangabad. In the year 1960 East Khandesh was recognized under one of the districts in Mumbai District. From 10-10-1960 the name of East Khandesh was changed by the Maharashtra Government to Jalgaon. Jalgaon has hosted a number of musical concerts.

Padmalaya is a Ganesh temple considered as one of the 3.5 peeths. It is a temple with two statues of Ganesh (swayambu) which have trunks bending on right as well as on left. You can walk to Bheemkund- the place where Bheema killed Bakasura in Mahabharata. The Padmalaya has got the very big history from the Mahabharata. The place was first known as 'Ekchakranagari' but later on it was pronounced as Erondol.

Manudevi : Its place almost 30 km north of city, located in satpuda forest ranges. Which has a local transportation till village Adgaon by ST. From Adgaon you can hire richshaw or people from village provide the service with bullock cart. Manudevi is kul-daiwat of almost 90% Khandesi people and everyone visit the place often. Best time to visit is during raining, it has water fall of @ 60 Feet height, it pleasant to see it in raining. Water of the fall is look like milk and pleasant environment around the temple. People come to visit the place from all over the country and few have visited from other country as well. After visiting jalgaon manudevi is not to miss place. People from Adgaon are supporting to visitors and they have formed trustee to support and help visitor.

Mehrun Lake: "Mehrun" is another famous spot in the district for its famous fruit 'Bor'. A fun park is located nearby the premises as well. Supposedly the name Jalgaon is inspired by Mehrun Lake, meaning of 'Jal' being water.

Muktainagar : Muktainagar is a sacred place which was named after Sant Muktabai who was younger sister of Sant Dyaneshwar . Actual temple of Sant Muktabai is situated at 'Kothali'.

Pal Sanctuary : Pal is a small village situated in Yawal taluka. Here, the beauty of the nature is breathtaking. It is located in Satpuda. Jalgaon is a prominent industry center in Drip Irrigation, Pipe manufacturing, Fruit processing, pulse milling, biofertilizer production, Green / Solar Energy and mattress manufacturing. Jalgaon is a significant collection and distribution center of agricultural goods and agriculture input industry (including biofertilizers). The leading products are Jawar and raw cotton and banana the region's rich volcanic soil is particularly well-suited to cotton production. Jalgaon is an important center for cotton-textile and vegetable-oil mills, particularly groundnut oil and hydrogenation plants. Jalgaon is also well known for banana production. The city is also famous for its gold market which has reputation of being pure. The Jalgaon city surrounded by various well-known and reputed industries like irrigation, pipe, forging, cloths. Jalgaon is nowadays becoming a well trading centre of Maharashtra and a leading producer of sugarcane. This year the sugar production has increased. The onion dehydration plant in Jalgaon has annual onion dehydration capacity of 10,000 tones, which is about 15 per cent of the total exports of dehydrated onions from India

Pulse Milling in Jalgaon started in the late seventies with JJ Group, Salecha, Vinod and Adarsh groups setting up milling plants which subsequently grew into multiple plants employing hundreds of people and serving all of India and over 20 other countries. Until recently traders and processors in Jalgaon have been leading the country in the pulse trade and processing. NCDEX and other commodity exchanges quote prices on the basis of Jalgaon delivery.

1.1 Location & Geographical Area.

Jalgaon District is located in the north-west region of the state of Maharashtra. It is bounded by Satpuda mountain ranges in the north, Ajanta mountain ranges in the south. The district lies between 20 degrees to 21 north latitude, and 74.55 degrees to 76.28 degrees east longitude. Towards the north east lies the border Madyapradesh and towards the southeast lies Buldana district and towards the south is Aurangabad and in the southwest is Nashik district and East West is Dhule district.

1.2 TOPOGRAPHY

Climate & Rainfall: Jalgaon has got pretty diverse climate. It is exceptionally hot and dry during summer with temperature reaching as high as 45 degrees Celsius. Jalgaon receives about 700 mm rainfall during monsoons, which is followed by pleasant temperature in winter.

Soil: The soil pattern in the district differs widely due to marked variations in the topography of the region. Generally soil in Jalgaon is black fertile, medium fertile, forest oriented, Murum. Black and fertile soil is found in Amerlner, Yerander, Jalgaon, Bhusawal and Muktainagar . Medium black fertile soil is found in Yaval, Raver, and Chopda towards the south and in limited quantity same soil is found in Chalisgaon and Bhadgaon. The soil is forest type towards the north of Chopda yawal and Raver Tehsil. Soil of Sandy type is found towards the foothills of Satpuda Mountains and also towards south of Pachora, Chalisgaon, Jamner and Bhadgaon.

Rivers: The principal natural feature is the Tapti River. Unlike the rest of the Deccan, whose rivers rise in the Western Ghats and flow eastward to the Bay of Bengal, the Tapti flows westward from headwaters in eastern Maharashtra to empty into the Arabian Sea. The Tapti receives thirteen principal tributaries in its course through Kandesh. None of the rivers is navigable, and the Tapti flows in a deep bed which historically made it difficult to use for irrigation. Most of Kandesh lies south of the Tapti, and is drained by its tributaries the Girna, Bori and Panjhra. The alluvial plain north of the Tapti contains some of the richest tracts in Kandesh, and the land rises towards the Satpuda hills. In the centre and east the country is level, save for some low ranges of barren hills. To the north and west, the plain rises into rugged hills, thickly wooded, and inhabited by the tribal Bhil people.

1.3 Availability of Minerals: There is no major mineral deposits in the district. However, sand, marble, stone, mica, and clay are available in abundance, which can be suitably used for construction of roads and buildings.

1.4 Forest: Total geographical area in the districts of Jalgaon is 218 thousand hectare out of that forest covers 25.08% i.e. 218 thousand hectare. Raver, Chopda, Yaval tahsils come under forest.

Population : According to the 2001 census the population of the district was 3,679,936. (Men: 1,904,437 and Women: 1,775,499). The rural population is 1,052,621, whereas urban population is 2,627,315. The population of Scheduled Caste 7.79% and Scheduled tribes is 11.84%. According to the census of 2001, the density of population of Jalgaon district is 313. The maximum density of population is in Bhusawal 730 and the minimum is in Bordawad tahsil is 208 per km. The literacy rate of the district is 76.06% and that of the state is 76.09%.

1.5 Administrative Status: According to the administrative convenience the state is divided in six regions viz. Pune, Nashik, Thane, Amravati, Nagpur and Aurangabad. District like Jalgaon, Ahmednagar, Dhule, Nandurbar, and Nashik fall under Nashik Region. The Jalgaon district consists of 15 tahsils (Jalgaon, Jamner, Erandol, Dharangaon, Bhusawal, Bodwad, Yawal, Raver, Muktainagar, Amalner, Chopda, Parola, Pachora, Chalisgaon, Bhadgaon). In Jalgaon District out of 15 Tehsil Jalgaon is a Mahanagar Palika and balance 14 Nagarparishads. Yawal and Raver Tehsil each has 2 Nagarparishads. Muktainagar and Bodwad out of these 2 tahsils are main Grampanchayats. In the District total 1150 Grampanchayat are there and total members are 10070. Out of that approximately general members are 15016, ladies 3072, Scheduled Castes 815 and Scheduled tribes 1167 are reserved. All the district level collectors are administrative chiefs and Tehsildars at Tehsil level. For rural development, Chief Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad at District Level and Block Development Officer at Block level are in charge of the administrative. Municipal Councils are responsible for urban development work.
