Brief Industrial Profile of Upper Subansiri District

1. General Characteristics of the District: The Upper Subansiri district derives its name from the Subansiri River which meanders through the entire length of the district. For a long period it was a part of Subansiri district with headquarter at Ziro. A circle head quarter was established at Daporijo, in early 1953 under Subansiri Frontier Division. Later in 1957 additional political officer was put in-charge of the Daporijo sub-division. In 1965, the additional political officer was re-designated as Additional Deputy Commissioner. In 1980, this sub-division of Daporijo was declared a full fledged district under the charge of a Deputy Commissioner. The district was further bifurcated into two districts: Upper Subansiri and Lower Subansiri. Ziro which was the district head quarter of erstwhile Subansiri district has remained as head quarter of newly constituted Lower Subansiri district. Daporijo has been declared as the head quarter of Upper Subansiri district.
