3. Industrial Scenario :

Dadra & Nagar Haveli is a predominantly a backward area in both the way economically as well industrially. It has an area of 491 Sq kms. and surrounded by State of Gujarat and Maharashtra, which are having a very healthy position, economical and industrial. Further the U.T. is located at almost equal distance from Mumbai, a Business/Economic capital of the country and Surat a Business/economic capital of Gujarat State. West sea coast is just 30 kms. Nearest railway station is Vapi on Western railway which is 18 kms from Silvassa, the Head Quarter of Dadra & Nagar Haveli. Thus U.T. has a location advantage.

In 1971, Govt of India has declared U.T. as industrially backward area/district and extended the Scheme of 10% cash subsidy to the industrial units on their capital investment. The quantum of subsidy was increased gradually to 15% and 25% subsequently which resulted in speedy industrial development of the territory. This Scheme was closed/terminated from 30th September 1988 and during this period the Government has disbursed subsidy to the tune of Rs.12, 33, 66,142/- say Rs. 12.5 crores to the Units established.

Meanwhile from January 1984, Sales Tax Act was implemented & the Industrial Units who so ever establishes were eligible for sales tax exemption for the period of 15 years. This Scheme was in force up to 1998. At present the new established Units are getting the benefit of Central Sales Tax exemption which is available up to year 2017.

Further the territory has establish a very good net work of electricity which is being made available from Central grid and hence the electricity which is a main source of energy for the industry was very cheap compared to the adjoining area and being a comparatively small area network easy maintenance results is very less interruption say no interruption. The territory has one 220 KVA Substation and a network of 66 KVA all over the territory. Hence the industry in any corner of the territory gets the power without delay. Due to availability of power from central grid and less maintenance cost the ultimate power tariff is very less in comparison to adjoining states and other areas. The rate is at present Rs.2.75 per Unit. This has attracted many industries which has continuous process or required uninterrupted power.

Since 1st April 1993,100% deduction is available to the Industrial establishments in their profit and again, for the 1st five years and the same was available up to March 2002. This implies that those Units which begin to manufacture or produce articles on or before 30th March 2002 were entitled for 100% income tax holiday for 1st five assessment years.

Also after the initial five years benefit such industrial undertaking are entitled to the deduction at the rate of 25% for their profits and gains for the next 5 Ass. yrs.

Over and above these facilities the Government/Administration has developed three Industrial Estates at villages Masat, Silvassa Phase-I, Silvassa Phase II at Amla and Khadoli, having total 290 plots admeasuring 700 sq.mtrs. To 4000 sq.mtrs. With good road network. One Co-Operative Industrial Estates is also functioning in Amla village with necessary infrastructure. Over and above the Administration is considering the applications of individuals for converting the Agriculture land into non Agriculture. Till date Administration has considered N.A. for 1700 hectares of land & still 1300 hectares is available under Regional Plan 2000-2020 for D. & N.H.

The Value Added Tax has been enforcing since 1st April 2005, but the tax benefits/exemption available to the Industrial Units has been made available to them for the balance period.

The UT is having top five industrial sectors viz Textile basically yarn processing units (18%), Plastic (28%), Paper (10%), Chemical material producers basically by mixing and blending (7%) and Metal based units (6%). The UT of DNH is predominantly is a textile hub, amounting to about 70% of the nation's textile value creation. Resultantly, today DNH is India's texturizing capital with about 40% of national share. It provides direct and indirect employment to about 50,000 people.

3.1 Industry at a glance

District Industries Centre, Silvassa

The District Industries Centre has been established at Silvassa and is functioning from June, 1978. Under the single roof of DIC, all the services and supports required by new entrepreneurs are provided. DIC in collaboration with other development agencies has formulated a number of bankable project for the weaker sections of the district. The bankable scheme of DIC envisages to promote rural and cottage industries under non-farm sector as identified by Development Officer of Rural and Cottage Industries.

Promotional Service/Activities of DIC :

The Single Window Investor Friendly Time Bound System (SWIFT) is Functioning Since 1996. All the Clearance required for Industrial Sectors are processed through and the same are delivered through swift after obtaining reply/permission from concerned Authority. Various check list are also available with prescribed Performa of application in DIC. At present Seven departments industrial clearance/permissions are accepted in SWIFT. These are pollution clearance, Vat registration, electrical permission, construction permission, factories licenses, all clearance of DIC other than the memorandums/intimations of MSME Act.

The Prime Minister Employment Generation Programme :

PMEGP SCHEME is also dealt by DIC. The interested entrepreneurs taking benefit of the schemes for setting up their manufacturing as well as service enterprises. KVIC is agency in the Scheme.

Government Industrial Estates Development:

As detailed above, DIC is having 4 Government Industrial Estates One at Khadoli and One at Masat & Two at Piparia Village. The revenues in terms of lease rents, Transfer of Lease Rights of land and sub letting permissions are recovered by DIC.

The entire maintenance and development of these Four government industrial estates are looked after by OI DC since its inception. All the matters are processed as per the terms and conditions of lease deed.

Revenue are received from all Govt. Industrial Estate as well as from shops & sheds as a lease Rents, premium charges for transferring of lease right of plots and also allowing sub letting permissions of constructed building on plots.

Service Provided by DIC for promotion & Growth of Industries:.

Service of DIC : Registering authority under old SSI policy prior to 2.10.06.

NOC for large scale units & entrepreneurs memorandum number for micro, small, medium of enterprise under MSME Act-2006. Earlier this department was promoting the industrial development by providing services like provisional SSI registration, permanent SSI Registration, Medium Scale NOC and amendment related to this registration.

Service of DIC : Promotional Agency Under MSME Act 2006 after 2-10-06.

But due to enforcement of the Micro, Small & Medium Enterprise Act-2006 all over India, the SSI registration is now replaced with filling of memorandum to District Industries Centre being notified as Authority in the matter. More over under section 7 (1) of this Act which takes in to account word “Enterprise” in place of erstwhile “Industry”. The preamble of the Act is to provide for facilitating the promotion of Micro Small and Medium Enterprises.

This Act has been frame out with a view to give comprehensive central law to provide and appropriate legal frame work and emphasizing the importance of service sector enterprises in the country. Enterprises have been classified broadly into two categories:

- (A) Enterprises Engaged in the manufacture/production of goods pertaining to any industry.
- (B) Enterprises engaged in providing/rendering of services.

The manufacturing and service enterprises have been classified in terms of their investment in Plant and machinery (excluding land and building) and in terms of their investments in equipments respectively and further classified as below:

Sr.No.	Type of Enterprise	Investment
1.	Micro Manufacturing	Up to 25 lakh
2.	Small Manufacturing	25 lakh to 5 crore
3.	Medium manufacturing	5 crore to 10 crore
4.	Micro servicing	Up to 10 lakh
5.	Small servicing	10 lakh to 2 crore
6.	Medium servicing	2 crore to 5 crore.

The district industries center, Silvassa has started issuing acknowledgement in part-I & II in place of registration w.e.f. 31.1.2007 to MSMEs i.e. Enterprises having their investment in plant & machineries below 10 crore.

The units having investments in plant & M/C above 10 Cr. are defined as large scale units. These units have to file memorandum with secretariat for industrial approvals, New Delhi being the authority to issue acknowledge to LSI units.

The DIC also provides services like ISO certification, Capacity Assessment, Registration under LUB License, manufactures certificate under electric rules, EDP programmes, training, guidance for preparing project reports, various amendments related to industries etc.
